I wish you lots of luck in the future with Linda or with any other girl for that matter. Don't forget you still owe me a date. Or did you forget already. You won't have to be afraid to ask you just ask. Stay nutty and don't get into any trouble with Linda. Don't get cried or be mistrusted by any girl you go with because it hurts. Don't go messin around OK.

Love always Chris

P.S. You are invited to my birthday party August 13, O.K. I'd love to have you come! That's all.

Good Luck Joe - And

"ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE"

Joey, I don't really know you but I wish you luck as a Senior. See ya
Jeanette

The Old. . .

From your reserved seat...a review of Elsinore Union High School -- old and new -- in the past year through the 1968 El Lago. You will see the leading characters, the chorus line, the protagonist, the antagonist, the stagehands, the directors, the producers, the extras, and the musicians. All are somehow in the spotlight in your yearbook.

And The New

The characters do not change from year to year. Only those who play the roles come and go from the stage. Sometimes the stage settings are altered as they were in 1968, but the script is always essentially the same.

Now the end of act three is at hand. The lights are dimming, the theater is nearly empty. The stage will come alive again at the start of the new school year.

A man is only as good as the deeds he performs, imaginative as the things he creates, rich as he strives to make others. We know such a man, a man who is good, imaginative and rich. He is good in that he derives pleasure from the success of others, success he helps to create. He is imaginative in that he can see beauty in works of art, poetry, plays and, most of all, in people. He is rich in that he has gifts which he shares with others; knowledge, he strives to communicate.

This is a man who, standing in an empty theater and staring at a bare, dark stage, may envision things. He sees people, hears voices and makes mere words come alive. This is a man who stands before a room of unruly, uneducated students and says, "You can learn, I will teach you." He is a man who longs to share his knowledge and experience with those he may be able to help.

This is the man to whom this book is dedicated. So little we give him in return for his time and faith and concern. It is all we have to give.

We dedicate this, the 1968 El Lago, to this man, Mr. Dean Long.

Joey,
to a real cool kid.
I have really enjoyed knowing you all these years. Lots of luck
in the future.
a good friend
Always,
Bob

Class Of '68

The Eager Class of 1968, its spirit still intact after three years at EUHS, began the school year with a first place award in float competition during Homecoming Week with "Curse you, Red Baron." Betty Vander Valk was crowned Queen of the 1968 Homecoming festivities by football co-captains Floyd Berger and Keith Liefer. Awards announced during the year were a National Merit Letter of Commendation to Larry Wilks and the DAR Good Citizen Award to Connie Haun. Don McFerran, Dale Henning, Larry Wilks, Rick Perez, John Trtan, Betty Vander Valk, Mary Lee Lauritzen and Jo Anne Wallace headed various campus organizations and clubs. It was a great year for the graduating class of 1968.

As The Curtain Drops

We find a small, but energetic group of staff members enthusiastically awaiting the arrival of the 1968 El Lago.

It's been a trying year, but we've finally finished. We leave the accidents, the excitement, and the confusion behind and look into the future for the memories preserved in the El Lago.

Thanks go to many people: Mr. Gene Mecherikoff of R. Wallace Pischel Inc. for his assistance in publication; Mr. James Polk of Albert James Studio of Photography for his concern and trouble; our advisor, Mr. Jim Davis, and, of course, the staff members who worked until 1 a.m. many times to complete deadlines. "The Fantastic Fore" lent moral support; Miss Mindi Welty kept us awake with her lively personality. And, most of all, I thank Miss Connie Haun for many hours of hard work and the concern only a true friend and responsible person could show.

This brings the curtains to a close at the end of the first year at the new Elsinore Unior High School Campus. The 1968 El Lago staff sincerely hopes that this yearbook has preserved the memories intended for it. We hope in the years to come that the joy and happiness we have experienced this year will return as pleasant and enjoyable thoughts. If so, then we have accomplished our goal.

Sincerely,

JoAnne Wallace
